1883-002 Chancery Causes: H. Baylor & Bro] vs Admr. of J. W. Robinett &c Lee Co.

Baylor, Miller, Gilly, Kyle, Tankersly

CA. Debt
T-Property

To the Honorable John A. Kelly Judge of the circuit court of Lee County Va

Your orators H. Baylor, Thomas Baylor and Robert L. Baylor, late merchants & partners trading under the firm & style who sue for themselves and all other creditors of J. W. Robinett and name of H. Baylor & Bro. humbly complaining sheweth unto your Honor that heretofore they recovered by Judgement a debt of $42.54 with legal interest thereon from the 5th. day of April 1862, till paid and the Costs $9.13. against one J. W. Robinett, which Judgement was duly docketed and is as your orator is advised a lien upon any real estate owned by said Robinett. This Judgement is subject to a credit of $20 paid on the day of Jan: 1873. and the residue is wholly unpaid and now due your orators.

Since the rendition of said Judgement, the said Robinett has departed this life, having first made & published in the state of Tenn. his last will and testament - And one Pryor J. Miller has qualified as his administrator with the will annexed in this County. The said Robinett at the time of his death owned a small tract or parcel of land adjacent to his his Term. lands and which is bounded on the South by the State line and said Robinetts other lands and is known as the Sizemore farm or land and on which George W. Tankersley now resides and which said land was disposed of by the said Robinetts will, and devised upon certain conditions & payments to George W. Tankersley & John D. Robinett, a copy of so much of said will as shows this fact will in due time be filed with this bill marked A. and a transcript of said Judgement filed marked B. both of which is prayed to be considered as a part hereof. A part of said lands were undisposed of and descended to the following children and heirs at law of said Robinett who left no widow. viz. John D. Robinett, George W. Robinett, Mary Tankersley wife of George W. Tankersley & Lydia. Miller wife of Rice J. Miller, Martha Ann. Gilley wife of Wm T. Gilley, Joseph A. Robinett, and Rebecca Kyle, wife of Rufus Kyle, the said Rebecca being now under twenty one years of age. The Judgement aforesaid being a lein upon said lands, it as your orator advises enforceable in equity.

besides your orator ~~adonias~~ alleges that is not sufficient effects in the hands of the personal representative to pay and discharge the indebtedness of said Robinett.
To enforce his said judgement upon said lands, the rents and profits of which will not in five yrs pay said debts, by a sale of a sufficient amount thereof is the object of this bill. The creditors of said Robinett are unknown to your orators but will when ascertained be made parties Considered, the prayer of your orator therefore is that, John D. Robinett George W. Robinett, George W. Tankersley and Mary Tankersley his wife Major J. Miller as administrator with the will annexed of said J. W. Robinett and in his own right, and Lydia Miller his wife, Wm. T. Gilley and Martha Ann his wife, Joseph H. Robinett, Rufus Kyle and Rebecca Kyle his wife be made parties defendants to this bill and answer its allegations upon oath and upon a hearing a decree be rendered enforcing said lien and if found necessary to them an account of the said Robinett's indebtedness, marshaling his assets, and selling so much of said lands as may be found necessary to pay said debts and the costs of this suit. And for all other

Objection to Testimony

To the Honorable John A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County:

The Joint answer of John D. Robinett George W. Robinett George W. Tankersly and Mary Tankersly his wife Orion J. Miller admr. with the will annexed of Jesse W. Robinett deceased and the said Orion J. Miller and Lydia Miller his wife, William L. Gilley and Martha Ann Gilly his wife Joseph H. Robinett Rufus Kile and Rebecca Kile his wife to the bill filed against them by "H. Baylor & Bros." who Sue for themselves and all other Creditors of Jesse W. Robinet deceased, And for answer thereto these defendants say that they do not deny the Justice of the Judgment Sought to be enforced by plaintiffs and they admit the same to be a lien on said land. Respondents also admit that said land will have to be subjected to the decedents debts and they have no objections to the Court doing so in any manner that may be equitable and just and they have no objections to an account if found necessary. And having answered they pray to be dismissed with their Costs.

To the Hon John A. Kelly Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County:

The answer of Rebecca Kyle wife of Rufus Kyle who is under twenty one years of age by David Miller her Guardian ad litem to the bill filed in the Circuit Court of Lee County against her and others and for answer to said bill She will say that it is true that her father Jessee M. Robinett died leaving some real estate which will have to be subjected to the payment of his debts part of said real estate lies in Tennessee and part in Lee County Va, but She neither admits nor denies the justice of the plaintiffs judgment but supposes if it is just it is a lien on the land as claimed by plaintiffs, And She does not deny the right of all just Creditors to enforce their claims against said land in case the personalty is not sufficient and She has no objections to the Court proceeding to take an account if found necessary. And having answered this respondent prays to be dismissed with her costs.
